TIME OUT HOSTS BRÜNO DOWN UNDER WITH A WORLD EXCLUSIVE

First came Ali G, then Borat. Now, fashionably late, welcome BRÜNO to Sydney!

Brüno is the cover star of Time Out Sydney's June issue ahead of the film's general release on 8 July. Time Out is the media partner for the Australian premiere at the State Theatre on Monday 29 June – and we are also hosting the official after party on a night where Australia's glitterati will come face to face with Austria's most fashionable man.

There are 100 tickets to both the premiere and the after party up for grabs in our June issue.

For the Time Out world exclusive interview, international and Australian celebrities and fashionistas such as Scarlett Johansson, Jerry Springer, Miranda Kerr and The Chaser put forth the questions. Some of Brüno's answers are unprintable, sadly. Some of them seriously upset LA publicists (sorry Lindsay Lohan!). Some of them are online only. But all of them are hilarious.
